at the airport. At times passengers are subjected to bodily search. For this purpose there are special booths where male and female passangers can undress. The rules about laggage and personal inspection do not apply to foreigners.

- 5. "During a flight the crew are locked up in the pilot's cabin. They can leave it only after the last passenger leaves the plane at the final destination.
- 6. "The Bulgarian State Air Lines operate Soviet-make, two-engine, Douglas-type planes, with 24 cr 33-passenger capacity. These planes are very confortable, with soft upholstered seats. Only soft drinks and sandviches are served, but such service is not included in the fare. The stewardesses are called Cameriarks.
- 7. "The last air crash occurred in autumn 1952."
